Notes:

- All students must fill out a substitution form for each course after the grades have been received and recorded by the Center for International Education and/or the Registrar's Office!
- Please retain all course descriptions and course syllabi that you receive from the host institution. You will need to submit copies of these documents along with your substitution form.
- Be advised that it is difficult to find courses in study abroad programs that can substitute for the French literature (Fren 321 & 322) and French Civilization (323 & 324) survey courses.

French Majors: A maximum of fifteen (15) credit hours of coursework completed outside of the Truman French program may be applied to the major. No more than nine (9) hours of credit may be applied to the major from any one full semester abroad (fall or spring) and no more than six (6) from a summer study abroad program.

French Minors: At least nine (9) of the 15 credit hours required for the French minor must be taken at Truman or in a study abroad program directed by a Truman faculty member.
